

SCULPTURE

On the Lawn

OCTOBER 2018 - SEPTEMBER 2019

Admission is free and open to the public

OUR DIVERSITASTIC! ORANGE COUNTY

Orange County celebrates the installation of four new large-scale artworks for its fourth annual Sculpture on the Lawn exhibition that celebrates the growing diversity in the Central Florida community.

The DIVERSITASTIC! theme ties into a brand-new festival coming to Orange County on Thanksgiving weekend this year. FusionFest, a free, two-day celebration of cultural inclusion, will be held on Nov. 24 and 25, 2018 in front of the Dr. Phillips Center in downtown and will last from noon to sundown on both days. Find details at FusionFest.org.

The Public Art Review Board of the Orange County Arts & Cultural Affairs Advisory Council established the Sculpture on the Lawn program in 2015 to further its mission to include public art in Orange County for the benefit and education of its citizens while enhancing the visual environment through a diversity of styles, content and artists. The program provides access to world-class art in public spaces.

The current members of the Public Art Review Board of the Arts & Cultural Affairs Advisory Council are Arthur Blumenthal, Coralie Claeysen-Greyzon, Donna Dowless, Carolyn Fennell, Shannon Fitzgerald, Kevin Haran, Shelby Norwich and Maria Rubin.
